

IAD History

Brief History of IAD

The Institute for Aboriginal Development Incorporated (IAD) was established by the Uniting Church in 1969.

It is an independent Aboriginal community controlled culture, language, publication and adult education resource centre serving the Aboriginal community of Central Australia.

Recognition of Prior Learning and Credit Transfer

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the formal acknowledgment of skills, knowledge and competencies already obtained through: formal or informal study, experience in the workplace, life experience including voluntary work, domestic or social activities.

If you think your previous study/and or experiences might be relevant to the unit/s in which you are enrolling, discuss this with the trainer, who will explain the RPL process.

IAD accepts the qualifications issued by other RTO's. This means that if you have received statements of attainment for one or more of the units or modules in the course for which you are applying, These credits will be transferred and you will not be asked to do further study for those units or modules. IAD cannot award these credit transfers until they have sighted your Statement of Attainment.

The Aims of the Institute

- To help Aboriginal people to develop the knowledge and skills required to cope with cross-cultural situations
- To devise and carry out educational and other programs related to the needs and aspirations of Aboriginal people.
- To promote cross-cultural understanding through specific programs for non-Aboriginal people.
- To maximise the involvement of Aboriginal people in the control and management of the affairs of the Institute.
