Brief History of IAD
The Institute for Aboriginal Development (IAD) is a not-for-profit Aboriginal community controlled organisation which was established in 1969.

Our core business is the delivery of nationally accredited (and non-accredited) training and the delivery of language & culture services and programs. Our publishing arm, IAD Press is one of four Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander publishing houses in Australia.

Recognition of Prior Learning and Credit Transfer
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the formal acknowledgment of skills, knowledge and competencies already obtained through formal or informal study, experience in the workplace, voluntary work or life experiences.

If you think your previous study/and or experiences may be relevant to the unit/s in which you are enrolling discuss this with the trainer who will explain the RPL process.

IAD may accept the qualifications issued by other RTO’s. If you have statements of attainment for one or more of the units or modules in the course for which you are applying these credits may be transferred. You must apply for credit transfer before you start your study. For more information, please ask your trainer who will explain the credit transfer process in more detail.

The Aims of the Institute

- To help Aboriginal people to develop the knowledge and skills required to cope with cross-cultural situations
- To devise and carry out educational and other programs related to the needs and aspirations of Aboriginal people.
- To promote cross-cultural understanding through specific programs for non-Aboriginal people.
- To maximise the involvement of Aboriginal people in the management of the Institute.
